

Reykjavík, November 2017

On behalf of the Arctic Circle, I wish to thank you personally for your role in making the 2017 Arctic Circle Assembly a success.

At this years Assembly there were 106 breakout sessions, diverse in content and style and your expert contribution to the breakout session program added to the democratic dialogue and cooperation of the Assembly.

For this Fifth Arctic Circle Assembly, we once again welcomed more than 2000 participants, this time from over 60 countries to take part in discussions and dialogue, to listen to interesting presentations and to engage in partnerships and collaboration on a wide range of topics.

In 2017 the Arctic Circle therefore once again convened the largest international gathering for cooperation on Arctic affairs. It has produced a number of exciting projects, initiated and sustained cooperation, and helped to disseminate knowledge and understanding between representatives from different fields in the Arctic and beyond. We are profoundly grateful for what you have added to this success and look forward to your participation in the 2018 Assembly.

We invite you to visit our website, www.arcticcircle.org, where you will find photos and videos from the 2017 Assembly.

The deadline for 2018 breakout sessions is May 11th 2018. We welcome comments or suggestions you may have regarding the organization of the Assembly.
